Issue 372

May 2025

Stained glass isn't just for cathedrals or Irish pub windows. Hawley Senior Living residents have been busy creating their own stained glass art. They took a glass pane frame, a pattern, some permanent markers and some tinfoil to make some incredible stained glass art.

Why is this avid MN Twins fan wearing Chicago White Sox apparel? It's a friendly lost wager on a baseball game between the Twins and White Sox that resident Don Tomas and Activity Director Jenni Barr made. The loser had to wear the opponents apparel all day long and unfortunately the Twins lost miserably.

Easter “Scrambled” Egg Hunt

Our Easter “Scrambled” Egg Hunt was a great success! Resident hunted for hidden Easter eggs that contained letter tiles. If they collected tiles that spelled out “Easter” they won an Easter Basket. Congratulations to all our winners!

Congratulations to our
NCAA Men's Basketball
Bracket Challenge winner
Jackie Biewer!

Happy Hour Fun!

Happy Hour is always a good time.
We have live music, mocktails and non-alcoholic beer, drawings and great prizes!
Pictured above is the winner of these beautiful tulips, Joyce Larson!

Spring has sprung and we are SO excited! We picked up the leftover fall leaves and can't wait til the weather warms up so we can plant flowers and use our beautiful patio.

Every April 22nd people celebrate Earth Day to show how much they care about our planet. These Hawley Preschool students are doing their part by picking up trash around the area. Thanks kids! Our residents really enjoyed watching all that energy through their windows!
